THE MANSFIELD NORMAL QUARTERLY

AND SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENT

[SUPPLEMENT]

SUMMER NUMBER—1908

School News

Alumni.

'90.

M. L. Dartt has a good position as Principal of the Mayflower School in Cleveland, Ohio. Lately the papers report that his old building is to be replaced by a modern structure giving the utmost possible advantage to the "Ghetto" population surrounding the school. A library, gymnasium, baths, domestic science, manual training, etc., are among the probable additions to the school.

The Cleveland schools are fortunate in two other Mansfield graduates enrolled among their teachers—Miss Edith A. Lownsbery, '91, as Supervisor of Physical Culture, and Miss Grace V. Thomas, '92, as teacher in the High School.

John H. Wood has severed his connection with the Kane Leader, and is just now bringing out a new city directory. Mr. Wood has had some very pleasant things to say of the Quarterly, especially of the February number. The Quarterly hopes to hear from him again.

'94.

Mr. and Mrs. Van V. Howe, who have been for several years engaged in missionary work at Otrabanda, Curacoa, in the Dutch West Indies, are enjoying a much needed vacation among Tioga County friends.

'99.

L. May Carpenter graduated recently from the Oratory School of Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.

Julia V. Hurley is also a member of this year's graduating class in the Cumnock School of Oratory, Northwestern University.

'00.

Edwin S. Coles, and his cousin, T. A. Flower, sailed on May 27th for Europe. They expect to spend the summer in a bicycle trip through Ireland, Scotland and England.

Verne M. Lefler, who has been Principal of schools during the past year at Harrisville, Pa., is doing some post-graduate work at the M. S. N. S. He expects to continue his studies this summer at Grove City College.

Edna Shaw Warren, who went with her husband about two years ago to Arah, Shahabad District, India, to engage in missionary work, has been obliged, on account of poor health, to return home.

'05.

Forrest Hubbard, who has taught for two years at Haines, Oregon, has a position near Baker City, Oregon.

James V. Bromnell has been elected Principal of the Muddy Creek High School at Haines, Oregon.

'97

R. O. Weifling has recently been elected Superintendent of the Potter County Schools.

'05.

Agnes E. Dalburg, of Ralston, and Chas. V. Adams, of Montoursville, were married May 6th, 1908.

Jennie L. Price is teaching in Monticello, N. Y.

Once more we take occasion to refer to the above matter of supreme interest. This time we are glad to reveal some of the confidence born of relative success. At the outset we ventured to predict; for a time things seemed to be very slow, and responses were not very encouraging; we ventured, however, to continue the assurance that things would eventually come our way. For Mansfield's sons and daughters it could not be otherwise, and now they are coming, as the following will indicate:—

Previously reported	$14.00
Dr. A. A. Watkins, '97	60.00
Member Class of '75	5.00
Mrs. Wells Shaw, '99	1.00
Katherine Darmstadt, '89, Nellore, India	5.00
Total to date	$85.00

Model School.

The Sixth Grade held their graduating exercises on Thursday, June 18th.

The program consisted of music, recitations, declamations, readings, etc., the President's address being given by Preston Van Ness, and the Valedictory by George Crippen.

The members of the class are:

Leigh Allen	Isabella Mills
Lee Clark	Louis Munnell
George Crippen	George J. Myers
Alice Elliott	Hiram Nickerson
Rose Hemmer	Beatrice Obourn
Genevieve Husted	Raymond Sears
Eleanore Judge	Preston VanNess
Bessie Kratzer	Deyo Walker

Conservatory Notes.

As the last number of the "Quarterly" was issued about the time the comic opera "Pinafore" was given, there was opportunity for only a brief reference to it, in that number. While it may seem a little late to refer to the opera again, we feel that it is due to those who took part, to include a list of the cast, and to quote from the press comments. One thing that contributed largely to the success of the occasion was the alert and intelligent interest of those not especially mentioned. The Normal Chorus is somewhat like the U. S. Army, where every private is fit to take command, if need be, and the same appreciative rendering of the work was noticed in the orchestra. The Mansfield Advertiser said, under date of April 22nd,

"Pinafore Was Well Received."

"The comic opera, 'Pinafore,' given by the Conservatory of Music, of the Normal in Alumni Hall, on Monday evening, under the direction of Prof. Lewis, proved to be a pleasant success. The musical part was fine and the different characters were well sustained by all who assumed them. Frederic MacNaughton, of Elmira, took the part of 'Ralph,' and Will Bouton, of Waverly, that of 'Dick.' They were both important characters, and the two gentlemen just fitted the places.

Bliss Everitt appeared in the role of 'Sir Joseph Porter, K. C. B.' His voice and movements were so natural that the character could not have been better impersonated. Martin Lally, as 'Captain Corcoran,' did his part in exceptionally fine style. In fact, the whole cast could not have been better. Miss Edna Knowlton, as 'Little Buttercup,' was the star of the evening; while Miss Elizabeth Jackson, as 'Josephine,' and Miss Clara Borden, as 'Sir Joseph's First Cousin,' received their share of merited applause. Messrs. David Price and Stanley Evans also had important parts and were equal to the occasion.

The orchestra music was something to be proud of, as it was composed of home talent. The audience was large, almost every seat being taken, and the appreciation of the opera was manifest many times by hearty applause."

Persons in Chorus.

SISTERS, COUSINS and AUNTS: Misses Atwood, Beebe, Bodine, E. Cooper, G. Cooper, Coolidge, Dean, Drake, Gillette, Kress, Lockwood, Montgomery, Marvin, Miller, Newell, Redfield, Stone, Sullivan, Shields, Wiggins.

SAILORS: Messrs. Card, Cappiello, Derby, Hall, Loftus, Moffatt, Munnell, Smith, Stevens.

MARINES: Allen, Longstreet.

THE ORCHESTRA: Misses Throop, Jones, Florence and Maud Watkins, Clark, Snover and Messrs. Harris, Ramsdell, Strait, Campbell, Culver, Rockwell.

Another musical event, and properly one of the Commencement Series, was the recital given May 15th, at the Baptist Church, by Miss Elizabeth Jackson, of Wellsboro, who graduates from the Organ Course of the Conservatory. The program was designed to show the capabilities of even a small organ, both as a solo instrument in organ music proper, and in arrangements from operatic and piano music; and as an accompanying instrument to voice and violin. The church was crowded with an appreciative audience who showed by hearty applause their enjoyment of the numbers rendered by Miss Jackson, and by the other Normal music students who assisted, viz: Mrs. Colwell, of Blossburg, contralto; Miss Sullivan, of Wellsboro, soprano; and Miss Maud Watkins, of Mansfield, violinist.

The Conservatory Class of '08 organized some months ago, with Miss Florence Lane, President; Miss Clara Borden, Vice-President; Miss Lela Newell, Treasurer; and Mr. Geo. Harris, Secretary. The class pins, made to special order from original design, are in the form of a lyre whose five stings represent the music staff, and bear the initials "M. C. M." composed of notes and other music signs. The arms of the lyre bear the figures "'08," and the owners' initials are engraved on the back. The jewels add greatly to the appearance of the pins.

Base Ball.

The base ball season opened with a trip to Towanda and Ulster on April 24th and 25th. The night before leaving Mansfield we received word that the High School Team at Towanda had failed to develop and that we were to cross bats with the town team. The Erie trains were late as usual but by dressing on the way we arrived in Towanda in time to play the game and win our first victory.

Our team was able to win at Ulster on the following day making two straight victories for the first trip. Dempsey pitched two very successful games. Lally was in good form and our opponents soon learned that it was not best to attempt any stealing. Among the new men of the team, Price, at second base, and Edgcomb, in center field, deserve especial mention. George Matthews came back to us again this year. He is playing a good game at short stop.

After many attempts to play a game here our opening game at Mansfield was played with Towanda on May 22nd. Moscript, an old Normal player, was in the box for Towanda. The Normalites fell on his delivery for thirteen safe hits winning the game by a score of 9—2.

The month of May was rather discouraging for base ball as it was very cold and rained most of the time. In fact all that seemed to be necessary to bring a shower was to advertise a base ball game. Our game with Keuka College was postponed twice. The Cook trip was cancelled. Alfred came as far as Elmira on May 15th and were sent back because of rain. The following week we went to Alfred but rain prevented the game. On the following day we played at Hornell. An account of the game there follows:

Mansfield Won.

Defeated the Huguet Team, of Hornell, On the Latter's Grounds Yesterday by Score of 7 to 2.

Hornell, N. Y., May 30th—In a drizzling rain the Mansfield Normal team defeated the Huguets, at Maple City park this afternoon, by superior all-around work. In the first and seventh innings they fell on Topping's delivery and their hitting, coupled with errors by the locals in these two innings, netted them seven runs. Roff pitched a good game for the visitors and was given much better support than Topping, especially at critical times.

On June 2nd the game with Keuka that had been so often postponed was played at Mansfield. The visitors came down with colors flying. They were at half mast when they went back. The Normals fell on Bannatyne's fine delivery for four safe hits while the visitors secured only three off Dempsey.

On the following Friday the Normal played at Keuka. The score was 8—4 in favor of Keuka. It was the first defeat our team had suffered this season.

There are still four games to be played, all on the home ground. We have strong hopes of winning these, thus making the season the most successful in many years.
